

Rockland Jewish Family Service
Care for the Entire Community

A JEWEL IN ROCKLAND COUNTY Rockland Jewish Family Service (RJFS)

RJFS is a not for profit, non-sectarian mental health and social services agency, who provides compassionate, professional human services to help people of all ages, faiths and backgrounds to overcome challenges and live their lives to the fullest. Some of our programs and services include:

- Community Outreach including adult education and
- Clinical Counseling Services individual mental health therapy
- Social Skills and Beyond clinical groups for children and young adults
- Older Adult Services
- Send-A-Friend to isolated individuals
- Share-A-Shabbat with isolated individuals
- Slick Club social club for developmentally disabled adults
- Traditions club for people with dementia
- Lillian's Café staffed with adults on the Autism spectrum
- Kosher Food Pantry for anyone experiencing food insecurity
- Holocaust Survivor Support
- Camp Kipanga for children & teens on the Autism spectrum or with social skills deficits

We hope that you will share this information in order to familiarize the community with these important resources. For more information, please visit our website at www.rjfs.org or call our office at (845) 354-2121 x140.

*We are always looking for volunteers. Our volunteers are an integral part of our operation. If you or someone you know is seeking meaningful engagement with members of our Rockland County community, please contact us to discuss your interests.