ROCKLAND JEWISH FAMILY SERVICE
HONORS OUR 2020 VOLUNTEERS & STAFF

UNSUNG HEROES VIRTUAL BRUNCH FUNDRAISER

DECEMBER 6, 2020 | 11 AM
ONLINE VIA ZOOM

a year like no other
Our son in law, Jason Weinger, who lost his life to the corona virus in May, was the consummate go-to person for the food pantry of RJFS. No chore too large or too small, Jason was the problem solver. He and our daughter, Jill with their three children, Tamar, Mikalah and Eli, were well known volunteers for Rockland Jewish Family Service. Jason did not stop there, however. He was a volunteer for the Suffern Fire Department and as we are still learning after his death, he was also the go-to person for family members, for friends who needed help, and others in the Rockland community. Jason was a humble man, and being honored as an “Unsung Hero” is truly fitting.

With Love and Gratitude for the years Jason was with us,

Bobbie and Marty Goldstein
A hero is an ordinary individual who finds the strength to persevere and endure in spite of overwhelming obstacles.

- Christopher Reeve

2020...has been a year like no other!!

In spite of the many challenges that we are facing due to the Pandemic, so many incredible dedicated volunteers have reached out to assist RJFS in meeting the ever-growing needs of our community.

These kindhearted and caring individuals are truly Rockland Jewish Family Services Unsung Heroes!

We honor each of you today and are ever so grateful for all you have done and continue to do:

Mathew Baldwin
Chana Berkman        Nancy & Nate Feldman
Michael Berkowitz    Kassidy Gaviola
Michele Gorlitsky & David Blank           Galit Maayani
Abby & Emma Blank      Ben, Dian & Eliana Samalin
Daniel Dowling           Marsha Silverstein

Fondly,

Marsha & Gary Forman

Chanalee Fischer – your generosity in donating challahs each week to be delivered to our Holocaust Survivors and other homebound individuals is deeply appreciated. Todah!

Carol Blau – We are so grateful for your ongoing support, guidance and sincere dedication to RJFS, not only during this challenging time, but always!! Thank you for your friendship.

Kathryn Samalin – Not only are you the consummate professional in your position at RJFS, but you generously give of your time and energy and go above and beyond. Thank you ever so much!

Melinda Levin - Your generosity of heart and spirit does not go unnoticed. You share your experience and caring with so many organizations in Rockland. It’s a pleasure to know you and to work with you.

RJFS is grateful and blessed to have each of you on board.

Jason Weinger z”l – Your dedication to the success of the Kosher Food Pantry and its recipients, your friendship and constant support of RJFS will always be remembered. You are missed by so many.

Fondly,

Marsha & Gary Forman

Our heartfelt thanks to the RJFS community.

Congratulations to all the honorees.

Jason is forever in our thoughts and hearts.

Wayne Goldstein & Tara Slone-Goldstein

In Memory of Jason Weinger z”l A mainstay at the RJFS Food Pantry, Jason was also a role model to the Reuben Gittelman Hebrew Day School community. Drive 8th graders home from a late night Bar Mitzvah party held in an out of the way location? No location? No problem. Add one more who doesn’t have a ride home, even though it’s 1:00 a.m.? Of course. Jason never wanted any child to feel left out. Jason always said “yes” no matter how many activities he was involved in. Play dates, class trips to the firehouse, special events-Jason was always helping, and he never looked for credit or the limelight.

What a wonderful example Jason set for all of us at RGHDS and in the Rockland community.

In Honor of

Carol Blau Whether it’s delivering food to Holocaust survivors in Rockland, working at the Food Pantry, or combing through Costco to find the best quality long underwear and the warmest wool socks for the homeless people you help in NYC, you’re constantly helping those in need. Mazal Tov to you, our dear friend, on this very well-deserved honor.

Chanalee Fischer It’s not easy, but your kind, generous, and down to earth neshama manages to outshine your world famous and incredibly delicious challah. Todah Rabah for your service to our community.

Melinda Levin You do your many mitzvahs with a full heart and always with a smile. Thank you for all you do for RJFS and so many other organizations in Rockland.

With love,

Judy, Ruth, Eli and Brenda Josephs

Wayne Goldstein & Tara Slone-Goldstein
We thank you, all of our volunteers, for your community service.

In honor of all the volunteers who have made a difference in the lives of so many during this challenging time
-with gratitude to Carol Blau and Melinda Levin for always being there for RJFS
-with great thanks to Kathryn
Samalin and her family for all that she does to make RJFS so successful
In memory of Jason Weinger zl
a very special person and supporter of RJFS whom we dearly miss

Joan and Joel Black

Mazel Tov to all of today’s
RJFS Unsung Heroes.
Thank you for the work you do for the community.
Bob & Lois Silverman
To our dearest mother and wife,

Carol, you have always put others first in a truly selfless manner. Your tireless work on behalf of others less fortunate has been incredible.

Through your work as a speech-language pathologist and your involvement in numerous social welfare groups you have improved the lives of countless individuals.

We are in awe of your energy, devotion and strong spirit of giving.

May you progress from strength to strength.

Love always,

Talia, Arel & Andy

Mazel tov to all the honorees!

You have selflessly committed a great deal of time & energy to distribute food & to support those in the community who in many cases are the most needy.

Jason’s volunteerism served as an incredible role model to his family & the community. May his memory be a blessing to all.

With much respect & gratitude,

Carol & Andy Blau
Congratulations to Michael Berkowitz, Marsha Silverstein and all the honorees on all their outstanding service and hard work.

Mark and Orli Irgang

Congratulations to the Unsung Heroes.

Steven & Janine Kolinsky
Thank you for all that you do for the Rockland County community. You are all making a difference!

Peter & Lois Weiss

MAZAL TOV TO ALL OF THE HONOREES!

Lisa Green
Mazal Tov to the honorees!
We appreciate your efforts on behalf of RJFS

The Honorable Alfred (ret) & Doris Renee Weiner

Always inspired to volunteer by you and you’ll be always in our hearts.

Debbie, Hal, Jennifer, Hannah & Jake Roth
Mazel tov to
Kathryn, Carol, Melinda, Chanalee and all the volunteers,
Thank you for all your tireless efforts during this unusual time in our lives. Because of you many people were provided with much needed food and services during the time of the quarantine. We hope this recognition will show you how much you are appreciated.
In memory of Jason Weinger, he will not be forgotten.

Lyn and Hank Meyers

MOM
Of the many times we’ve been blessed to see or hear you get recognized for your work in our community, this honor for you is both the most fitting and least surprising. Mom, you taught us from a young age that it is our obligation in the Jewish faith to help others and do what is right and just; you taught us the highest forms of Tzedakah not just with your words, but also with your continued actions.

We are SO proud of you!

And we applaud all of the honorees for their commitment to this important cause.

Love,

Jay, Adam, Laurie, Maddie, Charlie and Coco
MELINDA

You never cease to make me proud.
Your innate goodness and sense of right, and your passionate commitment to vitally important causes give me a sense of awe.
You set an example for all of us.

And to all of the Honorees – a hearty “Yasher Koach”! May your commitment inspire others to follow in your footsteps.

Rich

To Carol, Melinda, and Kathryn and all the other honorees,
Mazal tov on this well deserved honor and your extra efforts during this pandemic.

Warmly, Cathy and Bert Distelburger
THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, for all you do for our community! Your dedication, volunteerism, outspokenness and activism are just some of the qualities we admire. You show us the way! We heartily congratulate you for this most deserving honor.

Carol and Myles Schiller

Mazel Tov to all the honorees
A special shout out to Carol Blau, Melinda Levin, Chana Berkman, Nancy & Nate Feldman and Kathryn Samalin. May Jason’s memory be for a blessing.

MAZEL TOV!!!

To Marsha Silverstein, Michael Berkowitz, Melinda Levin and Carol Blau --
Mazal tov to all of our friends being honored here today by RJFS. They all have been wonderful volunteers in the Jewish community for many years and are so deserving of this honor.

With love,
Sharon and Elliot Mitchel
Congratulations to all the Honorees. A special thank you to JFS for all you do especially in these hard times.

Kathryn is our hero
Of that you can be sure
She has achieved so very much
For the many food insecure

She does so much with good cheer
She’s never in a funk
She’s enabled hundreds to get their food
By loading boxes in their trunk

Through the summer’s scorching heat
And as the weather’s turned to freeze
In our parking lot she gives out masks
And other PPEs

But the most important thing of all
As you can surely see
She’s the mom of 3 more heroes
Apples all from a mighty tree

We love you, Kathryn!

“Who is deserving of honor? The one who honors God’s creations” (Avot 4:1)

Today we honor Unsung Heroes, giving individuals who humbly show honor to others--regardless of their ages, abilities or resources--and who serve with no expectation of recognition or reward.

We offer our appreciation and thanks to all the RJFS honorees, to Carol Blau and her family for her commitment and care, to Jason Weinger z”l and his family for his generosity and kindness, may his memory be a blessing.

Our community is blessed by your efforts, and your service will serve as inspiration for others to follow in your footsteps.
